Chapter 1 by Nataly Cisneros

This all started in a school called West oak. There was a secret going on it started on with the president and then the principal and then some of the students. Everyone wanted to know what the secret was. People said it was big and it was at our school. Other people said that the president was going to visit the school. But it was something much bigger it was totally something to talk about. The teachers begged there students to tell them but only 5 students in the whole school knew and there names were Isabel,Jasmine,Josh,Mike,Lory those were the only people who knew. They were the 5 smartest kids in school one was in 5th grade,6th grade,7th, and 2 were in 8th grade. All they talked about in school was about the secret. They even started to learn how to make them spill the secret. On a monday morning the principal said that if he heard a student/teacher talking about the secret they would get suspended for a week and the teachers would get fired. So it was better to shut your mouth when the principal walked around. But everyone still talked about it but not infront of the principal.
